Molech (also known as Moloch, Molek, Melech, or Minerva’s Owl) most of the time represented by an owl, was an ancient Near Eastern deity worshiped by several cultures. The Canaanites, Carthaginians, Phoenicians and Israelites were especially devoted to making human sacrifices, even burning newborns alive, depending upon the seriousness of the blessing desired. Moloch was commonly worshiped in the mid-east in pre-New Testament times. Throughout history Moloch has been depicted as a bull and sometimes even resembling a dog. The most common usage by secret societies in modern times is the owl representing esoteric wisdom. The worship of Moloch is not only limited to ancient times. Today we can still see it all around our modern society including government, religions, corporations, educational and financial institutions.

ANCIENT ISRAELITES SACRIFICING CHILDREN TO MOLECH, SOMETIMES REPRESENTED AS A BULL, A DOG, OR AN OWL
Moloch is mentioned in the Bible as one of the many common pagan gods worshiped by the Israelites. (1 Kings 11:7) and (Acts 7:43)

- 1 Kings 11:7 "On a hill east of Jerusalem, Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the detestable god of Moab, and for Molek the detestable god of the Ammonites”.
- Acts 7:43 "You have lifted up the shrine of Molech and the star of your god Rephan, the idols you made to worship. Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Babylon”.

According to the Old Testament, the Ancient Israelites were highly involved with the worship of Moloch (Molech), and to them it was a common practice to sacrifice children to this evil deity. Let see what the International Bible Encyclopedia says about it:

“Solomon, under the influence of his idolatrous wives, built high places for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom, the abomination of the children of Ammon. See CHEMOSH. Because of this apostasy it was intimated by the prophet Ahijah, that the kingdom was to be rent out of the hand of Solomon, and ten tribes given to Jeroboam (1 Kings 11:31-33). These high places survived to the time of Josiah, who, among his other works of religious reformation, destroyed and defiled them, filling their places with the bones of men (2 Kings 23:12-14).”

“Molech-worship had evidently received a great impulse from Ahaz, who, like Ahab of Israel, was a supporter of foreign religions (2 Kings 16:12). He also “made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations, whom Yahwe cast out from before the children of Israel” (2 Kings 16:3). His grandson Manasseh, so far from following in the footsteps of his father Hezekiah, who had made great reforms in the worship, reared altars for Baal, and besides other abominations which he practiced, made his son to pass through the fire (2 Kings 21:6). The chief site of this worship, of which Ahaz and Manasseh were the promoters, was Topheth in the Valley of Hinnom, or, as it is also called, the Valley of the Children, or of the Son of Hinnom, lying to the Southwest of Jerusalem (see GEHENNA).”

“That Molech-worship had increased in the interval may account for the frequency and the clearness of the references to it in the later Prophets. In Jeremiah we find the passing of sons and daughters through the fire to Molech associated with the building of “the high places of Baal, which are in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom” (Jeremiah 32:35; compare to Jeremiah 7:31; 19:5)

Molech According to the Jewish Encyclopedia:

In the Masoretic text the name is “Molech”; in the Septuagint “Moloch.” The earliest mention of Molech is in Lev. xviii. 21, where the Israelite is forbidden to sacrifice any of his children to Molech. Similarly, in Lev. xx. 2-5, it is enacted that a man who sacrifices his seed to Molech shall surely be put to death. Then, curiously, it is provided that he shall be cut off from the congregation. In I Kings xi. 7 it is said that Solomon built a high place for Molech in the mountain “that is before Jerusalem.” The same passage calls Molech an Ammonite deity. The Septuagint as quoted in the New Testament (Acts vii. 43) finds a reference to Moloch in Amos v. 26; but this is a doubtful passage. In II Kings xxiii. 10 it is stated that one of the practises to which Josiah put a stop by his reform was that of sacrificing children to Molech, and that the place where this form of worship had been practised was at Topheth, “in the valley of the children of Hinnom.”

“The name “Molech,” later corrupted into “Moloch,” is an intentional mispointing of “Melek,” after the analogy of “bosheth” (comp. Hoffmann in Stade’s “Zeitschrift,” iii. 124). As to the rites which the worshipers of Molech performed, it has sometimes been inferred, from the phrase “pass through the fire to Molech,” that children were made to pass between two lines of fire as a kind of consecration or februation…” (Jewish Encyclopedia, Article on Moloch)

THE FLIGHT OF MOLOCH, BY WILLIAM BLAKE, 1809

In John Milton’s Paradise Lost (1667), Moloch is listed as one of Satan’s fallen angels (Book I). He also gives a speech at the parliament of Hell in Book 2:43 – 105. Later in John Milton’s novel, Moloch becomes a pagan god on earth.

First MOLOCH, horrid King besmear’d with blood
Of human sacrifice, and parents tears,
Though, for the noise of Drums and Timbrels loud,
Their children’s cries unheard that passed through fire
To his grim Idol. Him the AMMONITE
Worshipt in RABBA and her watry Plain,
In ARGOB and in BASAN, to the stream
Of utmost ARNON. Nor content with such
Audacious neighbourhood, the wisest heart
Of SOLOMON he led by fraud to build
His Temple right against the Temple of God
On that opprobrious Hill, and made his Grove
The pleasant Vally of HINNOM, TOPHET thence
And black GEHENNA call’d, the Type of Hell.”

OWL LOCATED IN THE CENTER OF THE PENTAGON

According to some accounts there is an Owl located in the center of the Pentagon. The Owl figure was placed there by John McShain, the man who built the Pentagon. McShain was a highly successful American building contractor known as “The Man Who Built Washington”. He was also a Jesuit-trained Knight of Malta.

MOLOCH HIDDEN IN CYPRUS’ COAT OF ARMS

Do you remember the government of the Island of Cyprus, along with the European Union, blatantly stealing people’s savings from their bank accounts? Take a look at the previous illustration and compare their symbol of the Coat of Arms. There is a Moloch hidden within the symbol.

Who is controlling the Government of Cyprus? Obviously, it must be somebody who worship Moloch.

In Allen Ginsberg’s poem “Owl” (1955), Moloch is also used to represent money, wealth, capitalism, and overall, people’s suffering.

Moloch! Solitude! Filth! Ugliness! Ashcans and unobtainable dollars! Children screaming under the stairways! Boys sobbing in armies! Old men weeping in the parks!

Moloch! Moloch! Nightmare of Moloch! Moloch the loveless! Mental Moloch! Moloch the heavy judger of men!

Moloch the incomprehensible prison! Moloch the crossbone soulless jailhouse and Congress of sorrows! Moloch whose buildings are judgment! Moloch the vast stone of war! Moloch the stunned governments!

Moloch whose mind is pure machinery! Moloch whose blood is running money! Moloch whose fingers are ten armies! Moloch whose breast is a cannibal dynamo! Moloch whose ear is a smoking tomb!
Moloch whose eyes are a thousand blind windows! Moloch whose skyscrapers stand in the long streets like endless Jehovahs! Moloch whose factories dream and croak in the fog! Moloch whose smoke-stacks and antennae crown the cities!

Moloch whose love is endless oil and stone! Moloch whose soul is electricity and banks! Moloch whose poverty is the specter of genius! Moloch whose fate is a cloud of sexless hydrogen! Moloch whose name is the Mind!” (Allen Ginsberg, Owl, 1955) Emphasis added

ROMAN GODDESS MINERVA WITH AN OWL, HEIDELBERG CASTLE, GERMANY

Moloch According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica:

Moloch, also spelled Molech, a deity to whom child sacrifices were made throughout the ancient middle east. The names derived from combining the consonants of the Hebrew melech (“king”) with the vowels of boshet (“Shame”), the later often being used in the old testament as a variant name for the popular god Baal.”

Molech According to the Catholic Encyclopedia:

(Hebrew Molech, king). “A divinity worshipped by the idolatrous Israelites.” “The chief feature of Moloch’s worship among the Jews seems to have been the sacrifice of children, and the usual expression for describing that sacrifice was “to pass through the fire”, a rite carried out after the victims had been put to death. The special centre of such atrocities was just outside of Jerusalem, at a place called Tophet (probably “place of abomination”), in the valley of Geennom.”

According to III (I) Kings, xi, 7, Solomon erected “a temple” for Moloch “on the hill over against Jerusalem”, and on this account he is at times considered as the monarch who introduced the impious cult into Israel.” (See New Advent Catholic Encyclopedia article on Moloch).

MINERVAL SEALS OF THE BAVARIAN ILLUMINATI – P.M.C.V.

These pendants, worn around the necks of Minerval initiates, featured the Owl of Minerva. Also known as the Owl of Wisdom, this symbol is still found today in powerful places: around the White House, hidden on the dollar bill or on the insignia of the Bohemian Club.

THE ORDER OF THE ILLUMINATI

What is the Illuminati:

John Robinson (1739 – 1805), a Scottish Physicist and professor of philosophy at the University of Edinburgh defines the Illuminati in his 1798 book Proof of Conspiracy:
The Illuminati were conceived, organized, and activated by professionals and intellectuals, many of them brilliant but cunning and clever, who decided to put their minds in the service of total evil; a conspiracy conceived not by Masons as Masons, but by evil men using Freemasonry as a vehicle for their own purposes.” (John Robinson, Proofs of a Conspiracy Against all the Religions and Governments of Europe, 1798 4th edition, p. vi)

John Robinson was the first to expose the evil plan of the Illuminati. Being a member of the Edinburgh Philosophical Society he was able to work close to Adam Weishaupt. After seeing the results of the French Revolution, Robinson decided to expose the dark agenda of the Illuminati in a book called: “Proof of A Conspiracy Against all the Religions and Governments of Europe”. This rare book can be downloaded at the Internet Public Archive.

This design, with the addition of the letters P.M.C.V. (per me caeci vident : through me the blind see), was cast or hand-graved as a jewel to be worn by Minervals. There is no record of how many were made, and only three are known to exist: one in a private collection in Ansbach, Germany; one in a private American collection; and one in the Deutsches Freimaurermuseum Bayreuth. A photograph of this last one appears in Freimaurer Solange die Welt besteht (Historisches Museum der Stadt Wien, p. 314, 1993)

LILITH (QUEEN OF THE DEMONS) DATED 2000-1700 BC

The Symbolism of the Lilith (Divine Lady Owl) was used by the Sumerians and the Babylonians. The “Lilith” is only mention once in the Hebrew Bible in Isaiah 34:13-14 JPS Hebrew Tanakh. In the King James Version is actually mentioned as “screech owl, great owl”.

Wildcats shall meet hyenas, Goat-demons shall greet each other: There too the Lilith shall repose And find herself a resting place.” (Isaiah 34:14 JPS Hebrew Tanakh)

“And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof: and it shall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for owls. The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the screech owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest. There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow: there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate.” (Isaiah 34:13-15 KJV) Emphasis added

According to Baring and Cashford, the Lilith was known as a goddess “Divine Lady Owl” or some kind of Queen of Heaven:
The Sumerian word for owl is ninna and the name Nin-ninna given to the goddess in her owl form meant ‘Divine Lady Owl’. The ancient texts also give the Akkadian word kilili for Nin-ninna, and this name was one shared by Innana and Ishtar. Perhaps kilili is the original derivation of Lilith, who, much later, in biblical times, is called ‘night-owl or screech-owl’.” (Baring and Cashford, The Myth of the Goddess, 1991) Emphasis added

The following picture shows a stone image of Molech located at the Bohemian Grove near Monte Rio California. The text of Der ächte Illuminat oder die wahren, unverbesserten Rituale der Illuminaten, Edessa (Frankfort-on-the-Main), 1788, includes rituals for the Preparation, Novitiate, Minerval Degree, the Minor and Major Illuminati Degrees. The Minerval Degree text describes the “Medallion” with the owl, as illustrated above.

Every year’s encampment begins with the “Cremation of Care“. During the ritual a ceremonial burning of a shrouded effigy (shadowy corpse), named “Dull Care”, takes place in front of a 40-foot (12 m) giant owl-shaped altar made of concrete. Many prominent figures including politicians from our country assist and participate every year in this pagan ritual.

Conclusion:

Why are all these earthly institutions, from government to religion, all involved in the same garbage? The leaders of these world are not any different from the ancient Israelites. Today they are still practicing the Salomonic Ceremonial Magic of the Kabbalah and together they are deceiving the world and taking us in a disastrous direction. Is anybody even watching? Open your eyes, look around you and let the facts speak for themselves.
